

January News

Happy New Year 1st Grade Families!
1st Grade Students are all ready right back into learning routines. These next few weeks we will be taking MAPS assessments, DRA & PALS reading assessments. You will get all the results in February!

Events

Assessment Day Friday, January 17th Signup Genius has been sent.

Martin Luther King Day:
Monday, January 20th
No School.

Reminders

These next few weeks students will be taking MAPS assessments, DRA and PALS reading assessments. Please send your student to school having eaten a great breakfast!

Because of this Guided Reading books will not come home until the week of 1/22. Please continue to read each evening.

Learning Focus

Math:

We are starting Unit Five this week. This next unit focuses on Place Value and Comparisons.

Reading:

We are learning about Point of View and understanding who is telling the story.

Writing:

We are publishing our opinion writing & will move onto Research. Information coming soon!

Science:

We are beginning our unit on Solids and Liquids.

